3.1.15 in connection with and to comply with legal and regulatory requirements or when it is otherwise required or allowed by law.

3.2 The objective and purpose of this Policy is therefore to set out THE COMPANY's policy on the processing of Personal Information, and to provide guidelines on how Personal Information is to be processed and safeguarded to ensure compliance with POPIA.

4. Application and Scope

4.1 This Policy will apply to the processing of all and any Data Subject's Personal Information by THE COMPANY.

4.2 This Policy without exception will apply to:

4.2.1 THE COMPANY and its subsidiary companies, including all employees thereof, including permanent, fixed term, and temporary staff, directors, executives, and secondees;

4.2.2 Any entity or person who processes Personal Information on behalf of THE COMPANY, whether residing or operating in South Africa, or overseas, who will hereinafter be referred to as an "Operator", provided they have been made aware of this Policy.

5. The Data Protection Principles and Conditions

5.1 Any Employee or Operator who processes Personal Information belonging to a Data Subject on behalf of THE COMPANY, shall comply with all the provisions of POPIA, including the 8 data protection conditions set out under section 4 of POPIA, which are as follows:

5.1.1 Personal Information shall be obtained and processed fairly and lawfully;

5.1.2 Personal Information shall be obtained only for one or more specified and lawful purposes, and shall not be further processed in any manner incompatible with that purpose or those purposes, unless specific consent to do so has been obtained;

5.1.3 Personal Information shall be adequate, relevant and not excessive in relation to the purpose or purposes for which they are processed;

5.1.4 Personal Information shall be accurate and, where necessary, kept up to date;

5.1.5 Personal Information processed for any purpose or purposes shall not be kept for longer than is necessary for that purpose or those purposes;

5.1.6 Personal Information shall be processed in accordance with the rights of Data Subjects under POPIA;

5.1.7 Appropriate technical and organisational safeguards and measures must be put in place to protect and guard against unauthorised or unlawful processing of Personal Information and against accidental loss or destruction of, or damage to, Personal Information;

5.1.8 Personal Information shall not be transferred outside South Africa to another country unless that country has similar Data Privacy laws to those set out under POPIA in place, or the person / organisation to whom the Personal Information is being transferred provides a written undertaking to apply the principles set out under POPIA to the processing of the Personal Information.

6. How Personal Information is Processed and Used

6.1 Before any Personal Information is processed, the person processing such information on behalf of THE COMPANY must bring to the Data Subject's attention the provisions set out under THE COMPANY DATA PRIVACY CONSENT NOTICE which, for ease of reference, is attached hereto marked Annexure "A." The Consent Notice includes, amongst others, the following instructions and details:

- Why the processing of the Data Subject's Personal Information is necessary;
- What Personal Information is required and the purpose for the requirement;
- What will be done with the Personal Information;
- That in order to use the Personal Information, the Data Subject must provide consent for such processing, unless such processing is necessary to carry out actions for the conclusion or performance of a contract to which the Data Subject is a party; or is required and complies with an obligation imposed by law on either the Data Subject or the Responsible Party; or is necessary to protect the legitimate interest (s) of the Data Subject or the Responsible Party; or is necessary for the proper performance of a public law duty by a public body; or is necessary for pursuing the Data Subject or the Responsible Party's legitimate interests, or that of a third party to whom the Personal Information is supplied;

- Who the Personal Information will be shared with;
- Whether the Personal Information will be sent outside the borders of South Africa and what data security measures are in place to protect the information;
- What will be done with the Personal Information once the purpose for its collection and use has expired.

6.2 When processing a Data Subject's Personal Information, the person processing such information must ensure that:

- They only process Personal Information, which is relevant and accurate and only for the purpose for which it is required;
- Special Personal Information will only be processed in line with the provisions set out under POPIA and in accordance with instructions set out by the Information Officer from time to time.

7. Safeguarding Personal Information

7.1 All Company employees and where applicable, Operators and persons acting on behalf of THE COMPANY must before processing Personal Information, ensure that the records/facility housing the Personal Information will be kept secure and that appropriate measures and safeguards are in place to prevent any unauthorised access, disclosure and/or loss of such Personal Information.

7.2 Removing and downloading Personal Information onto portable devices from workplace equipment, or taking soft copies of Personal Information off-site, must be authorised in writing by the manager of the relevant department from where the information emanates, and a copy of such authorisation sent to the Information Officer. The Responsible Party will thereafter ensure that such Personal Information is permanently destroyed.

7. Access by Others and Cross-Border Transfer

The Responsible Party may from time to time have to disclose the Data Subject's Personal Information to other parties, including its group companies or subsidiaries, joint venture companies, client companies and entities and/or approved product or third party service providers, regulators and/or governmental officials, international service providers and related companies or agents, but such disclosure will always be subject to an agreement, which will be concluded between the Responsible Party and the party to whom it is disclosing the Data Subject's Personal Information, which contractually obliges the recipient of the Data Subject's Personal Information to comply with strict confidentiality and data security conditions.

Where Personal Information and related data is transferred to a country which is situated outside the borders of South Africa, the Data Subject's Personal Information will only be transferred to those countries which have similar data privacy laws in place, or where the recipient of the Personal Information is bound contractually to a no lesser set of obligations than those imposed by POPIA.

8. Right to Object and Complaints

The Data Subject is encouraged to make immediate contact with the Responsible Party Information Officer at any time if he/she/it is not comfortable or satisfied with the way the Responsible Party is processing the Data Subject's Personal Information.

On receipt of the Data Subject's objection, the Responsible Party will place a hold on any further processing until the cause of the objection has been resolved. If the Data Subject is not satisfied with such process, the Data Subject has the right to lodge a complaint with the Information Regulator.

9. Accuracy of Information and Onus

POPIA requires that all the Data Subject's Personal Information and related details as supplied, are complete, accurate and up-to-date.

While the Responsible Party will always use its best endeavours to ensure that the Data Subject's Personal Information is reliable, it will be the Data Subject's responsibility to advise the Responsible Party of any changes to the Data Subject's Personal Information, as and when these may occur.

10. Access to Information by the Data Subject

The Data Subject has the right at any time to request the Responsible Party to provide the Data Subject with details of his/her/its Personal Information which the Responsible Party holds, and/or the purpose for which it has been used, provided that such request is made using the standard section 51 Responsible Party PAIA process, which procedure can be accessed by downloading and completing the standard request for information form, kept in the Responsible Party's section 51 PAIA Manual, which can be found on the Responsible Party's website.

11. Amendments and Binding on Successors in Title

The Responsible Party reserves the right to amend this Data Privacy Consent Notice from time to time.

The rights and obligations of the parties under this Data Privacy Consent Notice will be binding on, and will be of the benefit to, each of the parties' successors in title and/or assigns where applicable.

12. Declaration and Data Privacy Consent

The Data Subject confirms that the Data Subject's Personal Information provided is accurate, up-to-date, not misleading and is complete in all respects, save where same may change and then, in such an event, the Data Subject undertakes to advise the Responsible Party or its Operator(s) of these changes.

The Data Subject, in providing the required Personal Information to the Responsible Party and/or to its Operator(s), consents and gives the Responsible Party permission to process and further process the Data Subject's Personal Information as and where required and acknowledges that the Data Subject understands the purposes for which the Personal Information is required, and for what it will be used.

Should any of the Personal Information which has been provided by the Data Subject concern a legal entity, the Data Subject confirms that he/she has the necessary authority to act on behalf of such legal entity, and that he/she has the right to provide the Personal Information and/or the required consent to use said Personal Information, on behalf of the legal entity.

Should any of the Personal Information belong to any of the Data Subject's dependants and/or beneficiaries who are under age, the Data Subject, in his/her capacity as their legal guardian and competent person, give the Responsible Party the appropriate authorisation to process their Personal Information for the purposes for which these details were given.
